King's Infant School attaches the utmost importance to the safety, health and welfare of its employees and pupils. King's Infant School endeavours to comply with the provisions of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and local laws and all subsequent regulations, including those implementing EC Directives. This includes any specific safe systems of work, instructions, training and procedures laid down for the protection of those involved in King's Infant School's operations, and for those who may become involved in them.
